

Learn How You can Easily Boost your Book Sales

Most writers like you, write great books.

But when it comes to market them, you stumble...

you hesitate, you don't like it!

Inspite of your uneasiness, you write your own promotional materials. Great!

I understand you.

You are an artist, not a sales person.

And that's ok.

That's why a copywriting critique service

can be your best ally if you have already written your promotional material.

Here's why?

A copywriter

- is a professional salesperson.
- applies proven success structures to the copywriting pieces.
- uses experience to give life to your copy.
- tweak your copy to make it rock.

Effective copywriting generates more sales!

My copywriting critique service can bring you

- a fresh perspective
- professional support
- higher revenue

Because my 13 year experience as a digital marketer have given me a solid background to quickly recognize what works in a piece of copy.

The over 3,000 newsletters, social media posts, landing pages and content marketing pieces I have written, allowed me to pile up the most valuable secrets behind successful copy.

My Copy Critique Service will check if your copy:

- deliver a customized message to your ideal reader
- state direct and indirect benefits of reading your book
- write your message in a friendly and easy-to-understand way.
- enhance the benefits of your book
- presents you as an authority in your field
- use the info from previous books to sell the new one.
- shows readers what's in it for them
- trigger readers' emotions
- prompt them to act quickly.

Contact me and get a professional copy review.

Hurry up! Get the service free this week!